Company Mission Statement

Does London lead the way? Not according to the guys up North at Nicholas Jones Bespoke.

Why is the company in this feature? Well, we asked that exact question to one of the company's directors: "We have built a reputation of challenging the status quo but still making sure that the fabrics and the cut are client centric.

"Nicholas Jones Bespoke is firmly established as the North's cutting edge tailors. We have over 10,000 suiting fabrics and 1500 shirting fabrics from the finest mills available. Giving clients impact and identity; whether in business, media, sports or leisure.

"Nicholas Jones Bespoke is based in Manchester with an ever-expanding fan base in the heart of London seeing clients in our offices, or in boardrooms, airport lounges or even at our second home on Savile Row.

"Never forget that style is timeless and fashion is merely directional. Blending the two creates an ageless contemporary garment that fits all needs."

Q&A with Nicholas Hartshorne-Evans

What are the trends for Spring/Summer 07?

Suits and jackets in muted shades of grey, biscuit and cool blues in one or two button jackets.

What is the most important clothes item to own this summer?

Fitted half-lined jacket in linen mixes.

What are the must-have accessories for SS07?

Vaja cases are fantastic, and a Nicholas Jones bespoke shirt in an Italian super 180's twill, with slim collar and cuffs is a must.

Fashion faux pas to avoid this season?

Bright dominant colours on main body of garment. And ripped jeans.
